MISS COURTNEY BIO

Courtney grew up in St. Louis and started dancing at the age of three. She trained in styles ranging from contemporary, modern, jazz, hip-hop, ballet, and musical theatre styles. During her training, she spent 5 years on the competition team at a local dance studio and four years as a member of the Lafayette High School's Dance team. During her senior year she served as team captain and was responsible for choreographing dance performances and leading the team to Nationals. Her experience on the competition team and time as a dance team member paved the way to attend Missouri State University where she is studying to receive a Bachelor of Science in Dance with a double minor in Marketing and Entrepreneurial Studies. Courtney one day hopes to be dancing on International Cruise Lines or in Los Angeles in the commercial dance field. In the meantime, her love for teaching continues to grow and grow. Courtney's favorite part about teaching is watching students discover their passion for dance.
